Famous UU alumni

Carl von Linnæus

Linnaeus created the system for classifying and naming nature, and the foundation of his system is still in use today throughout the scientific world

Anders Celsius

Celsius did not invent the thermometer. But in 1741 he constructed a thermometer that was superior in its precision

International relations

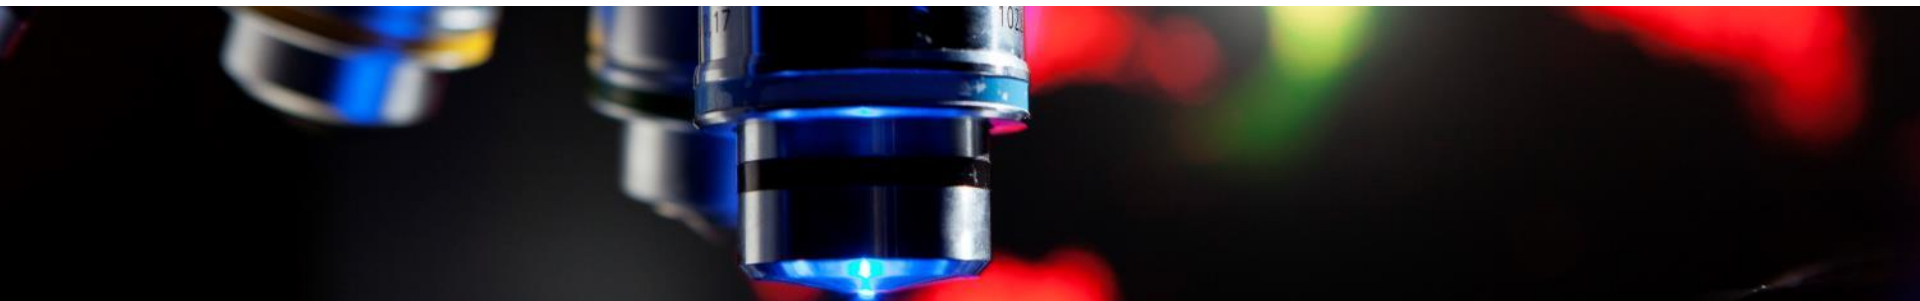

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

International relations: UU's mission

Uppsala University's mission:

- to gain and disseminate knowledge for the benefit of humankind and for a better world
- being a local, national and international meeting place for knowledge, culture and critical dialogue.

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

International relations: UU's Programme for Internationalisation

- to have mobility projects throughout the world, not only in the west or north
- to create an international environment that includes perspectives from all over the world
- to introduce and include institutions in low- and middle income countries to the international academic community and contribute to the development of independent research environments
- cooperation with these countries also forces education and research locally at UU to broaden the perspective which will enhance quality.
